September 2018 Newsletter

---

Hello, everyone! September was kind of a funny month because we held the September meeting in August. I still wanted to send something out because we have lots of things coming up! This is either a short version of the newsletter or a long version of the mid-month update. You decide.

Welcome, New Members!

We are so happy to have you. Please don't hesitate to ask us any questions you may have. If you're not sure who to approach, talk to one of the officers.

September - Kirby Weldon

SNOBtoberfest

September 14th 4:00 PM - September 16th 12:00 PM

Brooklyn Exchange Cabin

2400 State Rd, Hinckley, Ohio 44233. 24233

I sent out an email to my current mailing list. These are the people I know right now are going. If you didn't get that email, but plan on coming just let me know. Also, please visit the Facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/events/324535458302768/> and let us know what you'll be bringing in terms of food and beer.

Your dues have to be paid to attend. Don't forget to PAY UP YOU CHEEPSKATES!

SNOBs Night Out

September 12th 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM

Terrestrial Brewing Company

7524 Father Frascati Drive, Cleveland, Ohio 44102

Jim and Cara will be at Terrestrial brewing. They won the privilege during this year's big brew competition. We're going to meet there and have a few beers while we watch them work! They'll actually be there for the better part of the day, so if you want to head over earlier and say hello you can. Check out the facebook page at

Upcoming Competitions

We have already reached the entry limit for Son of Brewzilla, but can always use more volunteers. If you have never judged before, consider Stewarding, It is a great way to see how a competition runs. If you have any questions about judging many members are experienced judges, just ask us!

If you have beer that you want to enter into a competition, Beer for Boobs still has plenty of spots. Plus, the money helps support a good cause! The competition is October 20.

Other Dates and Events

Tickets to the Festival of Wood and Barrel Aged Beers (FOFAB) go on Sale on September 12, and apparently sell out quickly. If you can make it to Chicago November 16 or 17, you may want to check it out.

Cleveland Beer Week is also coming soon, October 12-21. If you are interested in volunteering, email Kimb@clevelandbeerweek.org. Also, please save the date for October 18, when we will be holding an event featuring the various collaboration beers we have brewed this year. If you missed any of the nights out, now is your chance to try the beers!

August Recap

We had tons of fun in August! Two meetings and a night out! I am still picking grain husks out of my teeth after the malt tasting. Here's a bit about the process of the hot steep method

Don't want to go that complex? You may not get as good of results, but here's a simpler version from the AHA: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YuHvSQAliwg>

We also had several members as judges at the Labor Day Oktoberfest, where we awarded Hansa as the best Oktoberfest and Fat Head's Alpenglow as the best in show!
